

Number Of Customers by Country Analysis

The Number Of Customers by Country query lists the number of customers by country.

Although the USA represents approximately 33% of total customers Mint Classics does do a significant amount of business all over the world.

This list represents customers regardless of whether they have active orders. While working on other queries it was determined some customers have no orders. For example, Ireland has 2 customers but only one has orders. See Customers Without Orders.